The Flowering Shimmies

We are a group of belly dancers who perform at local events and festivals around the central Pa area. During our presentation, we will display various forms of belly dance which will include traditional, classical, and folkloric, as well as some newer styles of pop and tribal fusion. We will use props such as swords, baskets, veils, zills, and tea light candles. For more information on belly dance or where to find classes in your area, check out the Central Pa Belly Dancers page on Facebook or feel free to ask any of the dancers after the performance.
